

Rules & Regulations

1. All persons attending the Fantasy Ball (spectators, competitors, officials, staff, guests, etc.) shall be bound by the rules and regulations of the National Dance Council of America (NDCA) and, by participating in this event, automatically become obligated to adhere to them.
2. Every person attending the Fantasy Ball does so at his or her own risk and expressly and irrevocably waves any claim or claims against the NDCA, Fantasy Ball, its organizers, employees and representatives arising from any loss, personal injury, death or damage associated with this event.
3. The Fantasy Ball, its organizers and the NDCA accept no responsibility for damage, loss or theft of property left in the changing rooms, ballroom, guest rooms or hotel.
4. This event may be photographed and recorded by television, video, photography or other method. All persons attending this event may be photographed, videotaped and broadcast and, by their presence, waive any claim related to the use of their image and the rights of any copyright, privacy or publicity associated with said photography, and consent to the use, exhibition, transmission, distribution or sale of such images by the Fantasy Ball, its organizers, employees, vendors and representatives in any type of media throughout the world without limitation. The Fantasy Ball reserves all print, electronic and broadcast rights and reserve the right to use any and all photography taken at the Fantasy Ball for future promotional purposes.
5. Private videotaping is not allowed at any time during the Fantasy Ball. Violators may be asked to leave the ballroom or have their cameras confiscated until after the competition. Professional photographic services will be available.
6. Professionals competing at the Fantasy Ball must be registered with the NDCA for 2022 and provide proof of 2022 registration upon request.
7. Entry waivers for minors must be signed by a parent or legal guardian.
8. Entries consist of completed entry form, signed waiver, accounting form (if applicable) & payment in full. Incomplete entries will not be processed.
9. All entries must be complete and all fees paid before competitor numbers are issued and competitors allowed to dance.
10. The organizers reserve the right to modify the final schedule if necessary. In accordance with NDCA rules, events may commence up to 30 minutes prior to their scheduled time.
11. Competitors must be in the ballroom at least 30 minutes before their scheduled event and in the "on deck" area at least 2 heats prior to their scheduled heat. Events will not be delayed for latecomers.
12. Events with fewer than 3 entries may be cancelled or combined across age and/or gender divisions. Prize monies may be reduced in events with fewer than 3 entries.
13. The judges' decisions will be final. No competitor shall question or harass a judge about his or her personal marks.
14. Marks will be posted. Anyone removing posted marks or master scrutineer sheets without permission may be subject to disciplinary action.
15. All closed syllabus events will be invigilated using the current NDCA list of elements and restrictions. Penalties may be given without warning for any syllabus infractions.
16. Competitors shall conduct themselves in a civil, sportsmanlike manner at all times while on the competition premises.
17. The organizers reserve the right to reject entries from competitors who have previously violated rules of conduct at other NDCA events.
18. Cancellations must be made in writing. Cancellations received by the organizers on or before July 25, 2022 will receive a refund (minus a $50 service charge) by mail no later than 30 days after completion of the event. No refunds will be issued for cancellations received after July 25, 2022. Credit or partial credit toward entry fees for the following year, may be considered at the sole discretion of the organizers in emergency situations when notified prior to the start of the competition and when accompanied by a physician's certificate.
